

not hereafter exceed two dollars. Nor shall said commissioners charge, or be allowed more than twenty days service each, in any one year.

SEC. 8. That hereafter the clerk of the board of county commissioners, shall include so many lots, or tracts of land in any deed, given at the expiration of the redemption of lands sold for taxes, as the purchaser shall require; and shall receive therefor, five cents for each lot or tract, after the first.

Clerk's duty as to the making deeds of lands sold for taxes.

SEC. 9. This act shall take effect on the fourth Monday of September next; and all laws contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved, February 19th, 1841.

No. 9.

AN ACT declaring Rivers navigable for certain purposes.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SEC. 1. That all rivers and streams of water in this territory, in all places where the same have been meandered and returned as navigable, by the surveyors employed by the United States Government, are hereby declared navigable to such an extent, that no dam, bridge, or other obstruction may be made in, or over the same, without the permission of the Legislature.

Meandered streams not to be obstructed by dams, &c.

Approved, February 9th, 1841.